

On January 18, the assessment and commendation conference for laboratory was hold in HaiNan, attended by the national cement enterprises with over 600,000 tons of production capacity and the special cement producers. With the company's advanced facilities and operating techniques, our laboratory has emerged from the large-scale competitive cement enterprises and has been named for "Outstanding National Laboratory in the building materials industry." The representative of quality control, Lou Xianbo, was awarded for the glorious title of national excellent worker in management of building materials industry".

Pucheng Company

Zhao Haiyan