

Xi'an Lantian Yaobai Cement Co., Ltd, the fully owned subsidiary of West China Cement Limited ("WCC"), actively fulfilled the social responsibility and public welfare establishments to help three qualified students in poverty-stricken regions who failed to enter university due to economic reasons. On September 2, the three students received the study-aided fund and expressed that they will study hard and contribute more to the society.

