

In February, the 4000t/d clinker cement production line, waste heat power plant and mine construction facility at Xunyang Plant was completed and passed the inspection by the Provincial Environment Protection Department.

A team of more than ten people from the Bureau of Safety Supervision conducted an inspection and evaluation of the production line and mine safety equipment at the plant. The officials were appreciative of our achievement on environment protection and safety management.