

Yangxian Manager Mr. Wang Fayin named the Ninth National “Star of Start-ups”

On 11th-13th June, the Ninth National “Star of Start-ups” Conference was held in Beijing. Mr. Wang Fayin, Manager of Yangxian Plant was awarded the “Star of Start-ups” and warmly welcomed by Hui Liangyu, Vice Premier of the People's Republic of China.

The completion of Yangxian Plant contributed greatly to the region: it not only energized the development of the local economy and provided employment opportunities to almost 200 local workers, but it also promoted the development of local tertiary industries including transport, food and beverage, telecommunications, retail and servicing industries. Manager Wang Fayin was honored by this award for his innovative ideas, successful entrepreneurial achievement and superb accomplishment in his work, which will encourage him to make further advancement and contributions to the development of the Yangxian Plant, to West China Cement and to the local economy.

