

President of China Cement Association Visits Lantian Plant

On 23 May, Mr. Lei Qianzhi, President of China Cement Association and Mr. Liu Zuoyi, President of Digital Cement visited Lantian Plant of West China Cement Limited ("WCC").

Accompanied by Mr. Zhang Jimin, Chairman of WCC, both of the Presidents have watched the whole cement production processes and visited the central controlling room and residual heat power generator of Lantian Plant. During the visit, Mr. Zhang gave a detailed report to the Presidents on WCC's development, management and prospects, etc. Mr. Lei fully recognized WCC's development and highly appreciated its advanced cement technique, management of residual heat power generation system, energy-saving and environmental protection.

