

“Yaobai” Cement Has Been Named as A Designated Brand for The Southern Shaanxi Resettlement Project

It's noted from Shaanxi Provincial Development and Reform Commission that our products “Yaobai” cement has been recently named as a designated brand for the Southern Shaanxi Resettlement Project, indicating that West China Cement Limited (“WCC”) is actively fulfill its social responsibilities while keeping self-development.

There are total seven production facilities of WCC located in Hanzhong, Ankang and Shangluo of Shaanxi Province and our cement has been widely used to national key projects as well as urban and rural market within the region, saying Xi'an (Shaanxi) – Ankang (Shaanxi) Expressway, Shiyan (Hubei) – Tianshui (Gansu) Expressway, Xi'an (Shaanxi) – Hanzhong (Shaanxi) Expressway. Our cement products have met the satisfaction of wide range of the clients.

With a view to eliminate the threat from major natural disaster to the people in Southern Shaanxi Province, the Resettlement Project aims to move and settle approximately 2.4 million people in Hanzhong, Ankang and Shangluo regions over the next ten years starting from 2011.