

Residual heat recovery system project in Fuping plant has been operated successfully

A ceremony was held in Fuping plant on 25th October for celebrating the successful completion of 10MW residual heat recovery system project (“The Project”).

In the ceremony, the District Manager of Yaobai Group, Mr. Wang Fayin, emphasized that the Project is a very important achievement to Yaobai Group in respond to the national policies and the sustainable development strategy after the acquisition of Fuping Plant. He also expressed his cordial gratitude to all the staff and the contractor companies for their hard work and close cooperation.

