

Vice Director of State administration of work safety Investigate Mine

Safety in Fuping Company

In the morning of June 15, Director , Xu Shaochuan, from the state administration of work safety visited Bao Feng Si mine in Fu Ping Company for investigation in order to prevent from serious accident.

Accompanied by provincial officials and senior executives from WCC, investigation group checked the mine production and major hazard area, they carefully listened report of on-job staff and asked staff details of work operation.

Director, Xu Shaochuan, gave recognition for implement double prevention mechanism, he said enterprises must fully understand the importance and distinctiveness of containment accident.

Senior executives from WCC warmly welcomed delegate from state administration of work safety and expressed that WCC will do security risk control and continually prompting mine safety management in order to build a green standard mine.

