
WCC Signed the Cooperation Agreement on Mo Yu Project with Sinoma Nanjing

Jan 23, 2019, general contract signing ceremony on capacity replacement of cement clinker in Mo Yu was held in Nanjing, director Shenjun, general manager Yin Zhisong and other management members from Sinoma Nanjing, director Zhang Jimin and CEO Ma Weiping presented the signing ceremony.

The project is to move the He Tian Cement to Beijing Industrial Park of Mo Yu county in He Tian district, it will adapt newly dry process cement product technology and advanced equipment with high efficiency and energy saving, the heat loss and power dissipation can meet the leading level in China.

This project is not only provide more work opportunity for local people and raise the tax income for local government but also promote the third industry development, like transportation, consumption.