

Social Responsibility Report of WCC Released in Hong Kong

2018 西部水泥社会责任报告

West China Cement released 2018 Social Responsibility Report on official website on 17 June, 2019, it was the third enterprise social responsibility report issued by WCC since 2017.

The report reviewed entire work of 2018 from seven chapters including enterprise introduction, responsibility management, environmental protection, products and service, innovation development, smart manufacturing, harmony community, which focus on environment protection and safely production, the report shows WCC strives to achieve the balance among corporate development, environmental protection and social benefits.

As a listed company in Hong Kong with highly responsibility, according to the report WCC will pay back to society with excellent development performance and actively fulfill the social responsibility of big corporation.