

CEO Weiping Ma Attended the Leaders Roundtable Meeting

Aug 26, 2020 China Top Cement Enterprises Leaders Roundtable Meeting (C12+3 Summit) was held in Qingdao of Shandong province, Mr. Ma Weiping Ma, CEO of WCC, was invited to attend the meeting and made speech.

Attendees jointly discussed difficulties and challenges faced by the cement and cement situation in the first half of this year; meanwhile, they made clear the key work of the industry in maintain stable supply and promoting innovation development in the second half of this year.

Mr. Ma Weiping, on behalf of WCC, gave suggestion on supply-side structure reform and high-quality development, he said that it is necessary to further standardize capacity replacement, promote off-peak production, optimize industry self-discipline, and promote the long-term development of the industry. He stressed that it is also necessary to expand the function of industrial chain, extend industry chain and increase the added value of products and services through continuous innovation.

Finally, enterprises leaders signed a consensus opinion on the summit of 2020 C12+3 and reached an agreement, the conference came to a successful conclusion.