

Mr. Lee Kong Wai Conway, the independent non-executive director of West China Cement, visiting Tongchuan 10,000 tons production line

On June 7, Mr. Lee Kong Wai Conway (“Mr. Lee”), the independent non-executive director of West China Cement (“WCC”), visited Tongchuan 10,000 tons production line, accompanying by WCC CEO, Mr. Ma Weiping and WCC Vice President, Mr. Chu Yufeng.

Mr. Lee firstly went to the project site, listened to the intelligence, green, economy and other reports of the project, affirmed the project construction progress, and asked the project department to continue to innovate the development concept, enhance the development of new momentum, and constantly improve the level of technology and market competitiveness, and strive to achieve clean, low-carbon, intelligent, safe production, energy conservation and environmental protection, scientific development, quality and efficiency.

All staff of the Tongchuan 10,000 tons production line will take this research as an opportunity to try their best to do a good job in the current production and commissioning work, to ensure that the scheduled production of effective, in order to achieve enterprise transformation and upgrading to contribute new and greater strength.

