

Shaanxi Environmental Protection Bureau commenced the cement industry environment inspection for 20 days on 6 July 2009. The inspection is mainly focusing on pollution emissions licenses and control, waste discharge system operation and eliminating backward capacity. The National Cement Output Update