

RMB311.3 billion will be invested on key projects in Shaanxi Province in 2013

The meeting for financial support of key projects in Shaanxi Province was held in April by Shaanxi Provincial Development and Reform Commission. The Commission introduced the key projects in Shaanxi in 2013 to the financial institutions and made an analysis on operating situation of financial industry in Shaanxi in 1Q of 2013 as well as proposed clear requirements and suggestion to all the financial institutions on supporting the key projects.

It's noted that there are total 450 key projects in Shaanxi in 2013, involving construction of fundamental facilities, development of energy and chemical industry, improvement of advanced equipment manufacturing capacity, transformation and upgrading of traditional industries, development of key water conservancy and modern agriculture, improvement of culture industry and people's livelihood, urbanization and ecological environment, etc. The total investment is RMB2.55 trillion with an annual investment of RMB311.3billion for 2013.

(Source: Digital Cement)