

14 railways with a total mileage of 3712 km will be launched recently

China Railway Corporation disclosed on June 30 that 14 railways in China will be launched recently, with a total mileage of 3712km and a total investment of RMB327.3 billion.

On June 30, with a batch of large construction equipments entering into Ejina and Hami area, Ejina to Hami railway, a key project in China Western Railway Construction, started the construction, of which the total mileage is 629.9 km and total investment of 9.87 billion.

Apart from Ejina to Hami railway, another 13 railways including Beijing to Shenyang passenger line, Hangzhou to Huangshan railway, Harbin to Kiamusze railway, Shanghai to Nantong railway (Yangtze Road Bridge), etc. will start the construction successively.

China Railway Corporation also indicates that the key assignment this year is to accelerate the railway construction especially for central and western China area.

(Source: gcement)