

509 water conservancy projects will be launched in Guizhou

The kick-off meeting of the 2nd batch of water conservancy projects of Guizhou was held in Zunyi recently. Mr. Liu Yuankun, Vice governor of Guizhou attended the meeting and announced the launch of construction. 509 projects with a total investment of 8.784 billion will be launched this time.

It's noted that Guizhou launched 30 key water source projects in the first half of 2014, accounted for 86% of the full year's target. Guizhou is expected to complete an investment of 10.5 billion on water conservancy projects in 1H 2014, accounted for 53% of the full year's target.

(Source: gcement)